

Bridge Camp run by AoIG

(registration required)

Targeted participants: Bridge partnerships, who are trying to improve their bridge skills and want to get in sync by going it together.

Who can sign up: any individual bridge player, pair, or team of 4 or 5 players. Team may need to be breaking up to level the field.

Format: 8 sessions, about 4 hours each. Number of participants is 8 to 10.

(30 Mins) Group discussion on bidding methods and partnership signals, each session will cover 1, 2 or 3 squares of ACBL Convention Card (starting with defense signals)

(2h 30mins) 16 pre-dealt hands will be played, in a two teams head-to-head match. Hand analysis will be available right after the match.

(30 mins) 4-5 hands would be selected by instructor to talk over on a defense and declarer techniques, participants questions are answered.

Facilitation: Camp will take place once a week on a predetermine schedule, to accommodate the majority of participants. Each participant has an obligation to host 1 out of 8 sessions.

Cost: $50 per session per playing participant. 1 or 2 non-playing participants (stand-by substitutes) are allowed to attend for free. The host is participating free of charge. All participants must pre-paid for 7 sessions. It will be each participant responsibility to find a qualified substitute, if s/he will want to get money back for the session s/he will not be able to attend.

What AoIG will provide to the participants:

Best available bridge instructor on a scheduled topic – s/he will be a non-playing director of the match, as well;

Pre-dealt boards, hand notes and analysis, table covers and bidding boxes;

Snacks and drinks;

Prizes to the winners: Bridge books (printed copy), books on CDs or bridge playing programs(for computer owners).Guaranteed prize money value to the winning team is $50.

The best way to get better at bridge: atmosphere of the bridge party, allowing everybody to learn at their own speed, with clear defined academics structure and commitment from all participants.

Camp will start as soon as 8 participants will sign up.

Do not wait -- number of vacancies are limited!

To sign up

e-mail to: BridgeCamp@aoigames.com

or call : 847-778-5259