from chess to bridge tournaments

On Saturday morning (May, 17th) from 10:00am to 1p.m. we will organized back-to-back chess and bridge tournaments run by Academy of Intellectual Games (AoIG)

Why? Because MIND is a terrible thing to waste.

Prizes and trophies will be awarded depending on number of participants.

3 are guarantee: for chess Champ, bridge Champ, and over all winner.

(OA winner will be determine by sum of points you score in chess and bridge tournament. You will get one point for every player you beat on a final standing.

You may choose to participate only in one tournament, as well)

Serious chess players encouraged to bring their own chess clocks. (We will supply at least 5).

For bridge participants prior knowledge of bridge game is not necessary.

We will teach anybody who is proficient in other card games (like “proferance” players) in 10 mins session.

Those who plan to participate without prior knowledge of bridge are encourage to print out and get familiar with some rules of SoloBRIDGE(tm) and bridge terminology published at AoiG site <http://www.aoigames.com/products.htm>.
